UNITED: A STUDY OF 1 CORINTHIANS

SUNDAY, JULY 2ND, 2023 - 10 A.M.

SEXUAL UNITY:
SEXUAL IMMORALITY

GATHERING AROUND THE WORD

Prelude: "The Star-Spangled Banner" Wyatt Dupuis

Quiet Reflection and Preparation for Worship:

Our world encourages us to divide into the smallest possible affinity groups, to distrust and dislike the others, and even to pursue opportunities for self-isolation. The church has sometimes reflected the culture in this regard. Paul, in writing to the church in Corinth, encourages a different virtue – unity. As we reflect on the call to be United to Christ and to each other, consider what might be the next step in your own journey from division to unity in your life and relationships today.

Welcome & Announcements

Lighting of the Candles:

Call to Worship: 1 Corinthians 5:7b-8a

Our Passover lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed.

Therefore, let us celebrate the festival!

*Hymn: "My Country 'Tis of Thee" (vs. 1,4) #337
"O Beautiful for Spacious Skies" (vs. 1) #338

*Call to Confession: 1 Corinthians 5:6-8
In the Jewish tradition, yeast comes to represent sinfulness. So, Paul writes, "Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole batch of dough? Clean out the old yeast so that you may be a new batch, as you really are unleavened. For our Passover lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed. Therefore, let us celebrate the festival, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth." Desiring to be this unleavened bread, we together make our prayer of confession.

*Prayer of Confession:
We know, Lord Jesus, that when we trust in you, we share in your righteousness. Because of what you have done, we are already forgiven, already unleavened, already made holy. But this week we have not always lived according to our new reality. The patterns of our old life draw us backwards, and we sometimes find ourselves living, not as we are, but as we once were.

Remind us again of the truth – we really are unleavened, sinless, righteous and good – for our true identity is not merely what we do, but in who you say we are. Strengthen us by your Spirit to turn away from our old patterns, so that we do truly matches who we are in you.

(We keep a moment of silence for reflection)
